A Touch of History

Saturday, August 19th 2017

Come out and discover a piece of history by visiting the Chippewa First Nation's Festival and learn some of the Native culture.

Colourful costumes are worn during the ceremonial dances and vendors' booths exhibit their wares and food throughout the park.

Continue on a picturesque route to Cape Crocker lighthouse which is a photographer's delight and where fossils are often discovered at the nearby Storm Beach.

Next the beauty of Sauble Falls is viewed as the water tumbles over the rocks.

This promises to be a pleasant outing with many memories so don't miss out! Stop by the Center to pick up your ticket today!

Price: $65 per member (taxes incl.)
$75 per non-member (taxes incl.)
