

Saturday October 13th CRANBERRY FESTIVAL - BALA

It is a repeat -- the hustle and bustle of this celebrated Festival. Ruby red cranberries are featured in the baked goods, pancakes, candies and even the wine. After visiting a cranberry farm and experiencing the cranberry plunge and cranberry wine tasting, take a helicopter ride or meander through the streets lined with local artisans and their wares. Fantastic music resounds through the streets as tourists relax in an upbeat, casual setting with a variety of entertainment. Have a fabulous day in a beautiful small town filled with enjoyment.
